Auctions redefined the Harcourts Brady & Co Way

Australia's Top Real Estate Auctioneer, Ben Brady transferred from Australia to California in early 2014 to develop and launch the auction platform Brady & Co Auctions within the expanding real estate franchise, Harcourts USA.

The Auction platform is a division entirely unique to Harcourts USA delivering a level of service, support and training that is unable to be offered by any other real estate franchise in the US.

As a leading auction company throughout Australasia, the Brady & Co Auction team has been responsible for calling auctions, negotiating, and selling more than $4billion worth of property using the auction process, over the last 5 years.

What does this mean for buyers of real estate?

Harcourts USA is now able to offer the most dynamic opportunity for buyers to purchase property in a completely transparent and genuine public forum.

Our primary goal at Brady & Co Auctions is to deliver both sellers and buyers a unique and informed process focused entirely on a transparent transaction, conducted by sales agents who have in-depth knowledge and a comprehensive understanding of the auction process.
